

VAULTVANE 100

Open it with your nose.

A door only you can open. Probably.

THE PROBLEM

Most lairs are sealed with a boulder that takes a full shoulder and half a morning.

THE GRUMBLETON ANSWER

Vaultvane is a counterweighted stone hoard door sized for a dragon's shoulders. It swings open with one push of a snout, closes behind you, and holds against anything a knight can bring uphill.

Why dragons choose it

Vaultvane 100 • GS-VV-100

01

Counterweighted: opens with a snout, not a shoulder

02

Self-closing, so the draught stays out

03

Claw-friendly latch, no fiddly handles
